

AMC Commanding General Visits FOB Hammer

Volume 1, Issue 1

10 JAN 08

3RD Heavy Brigade Combat Team– Brigade Logistical Support Team (BLST)

TACOM Automotive LAR Tom Boothe Receives Commander's Coin from CG AMC

Special points of interest:

- Coin Presented by General Ben Griffin
- Success of Equipment
- Brigade Logistical Support Team Habitual Support Relationship

Logistical Assistance Representative, Thomas (Tom) Boothe is awarded a Commander's Coin from General Ben Griffin, Commanding General Army Materiel Command.

The overview to General Griffin focused on the successes of the equipment used in the various operations thus far and habitual relationship with the BLST. The BLST supporting the HBCT is based out of Fort Benning, GA same as the home station of the BLST assigned to support the Brigade. During the early entry phase of the Surge Operations selective Logistical Assistance Representatives deployed with the main body to establish combat service support operations. Of the personnel selected to deploy with the BLST, Mr. Boothe was selected over more senior than him. During Griffin's visit he presented the Commander's Coin for exceptional performance and service to Mr. Tom Boothe an automotive LAR assigned to the 3/3 Brigade Logistical Support Team at FOB Hammer. Tom was placed in the early flow to the FOB and worked tirelessly with the BLST Chief CW5 Del Valle to establish operations. He served a six month rotation with the BLST, departed for a quick respite and returned four months later to close out the deployment with the 3 HBCT.

Coin From General Ben Griffin to LAR Tomas Boothe